DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Group 1, Species III, claims 1 and 4-8 in the reply filed on 05/04/2005 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

3. Claims 1 and 5-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Bruun et al. 6,471,039.

Bruun '039 discloses a conveyor system per claimed invention. The conveyor system comprises at least two sequentially arranged endless conveyor belts having one upstream belt and one downstream belt for transporting articles. Each belt comprises an independent driving unit. A frequency converter controls the rotational speed of the driving unit and the respective belt. The weight of each transport article is forwarded downstream to the subsequent belt so that the speed of the belt could be adjusted according to a weight determination commensurate with a presence or absent of articles positioned on the belt.

In regards to claim 5, the rotation speed of each belt could be adjusted to provide constant velocity to the conveyor belt system commensurate with the weight of the articles on each belt.

In regards to claim 8, Bruun '039 conveyor belts form a storage unit for the article, at least when the belts are not running.

Allowable Subject Matter

4. Claim 4 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

5. Additional references made of record and not relied upon are considered to be of interest to applicant's disclosure: see attached USPTO Form 892.
